TOOLS REQUIRED

- Socket set to include 8mm socket & wrench.
 - Cable cutters.

FITTING INSTRUCTIONS

- To fit the radiator guard to the bike cut the foam strip provided into 10mm wide pieces and stick them to the back of the radiator guard frame, so that they sit between the radiator guard and the radiator.
- Remove the bolt mounting the top of the radiator in place, as arrowed in picture 1.
- Offer the R&G Radiator Guard roughly into place before looping one cable tie through the top corner mounting holes on either side of the radiator guard and then through the hole in the angled radiator bracket, as shown in picture 2. Connect the cable tie loosely.
- Re-fit the original top mounting bolt, ensuring it goes through the radiator guard mounting hole before locating through the OEM top hat spacer and into the threaded boss, as shown in picture 3.

- Ensure the radiator guard is correctly positioned paying particular attention to the two bolt heads on the right side of the radiator, as shown in picture 4. The radiator guard cut-outs should clear the bolt heads ensuring the radiator guard can sit against the radiator core.
- At the bottom of the radiator, one cable tie needs to be feed though the two holes in the lower bracket of the radiator guard, and then looped through the edge of the radiator matrix before being tightened, as shown in picture 5. This needs to be done on both sides of the radiator.
- With all the cable ties correctly fitted and the radiator guard positioned correctly, the top mounting bolt can be tightened along with all the cable ties.
