

FITTING INSTRUCTIONS FOR R&G LICENCE PLATE HANGER

Yamaha Fazer 600 '04> / FZ6 '04> (part code LP0038BK)

- Remove seat.
- Remove the two side panels
- Undo the two bolts at the rear of the OEM licence plate holder with a 10mm ring spanner then undo the two allen bolts at the front of the unit.
- Lower OEM licence plate holder and undo wire connections. To make access to the wires easier pull the black plastic shroud up slightly and undo the bolt at the front of the cable tray, let this drop down then unclip the black plastic cover over the wires.
- Fit the R&G number plate light to the hole in the OEM plastic at the rear of the exhaust. The two studs just go through then fit the washer and nuts to hold it in place. This is very fiddly as the studs are only just long enough to get the nuts started, but once they are on they will tighten up and pull the light unit back slightly. You can pull the plastic up to make access easier
- Fit indicators of your choice to the R&G unit. If using OEM use the two plastic spacers to make them a tight fit.
- Pass the wires back through the bike.
- Refit cover back over wires and refit cable tray
- Offer R&G Tail Tidy up to bike and fit using the four button head bolts supplied.
- Reconnect the wires to the bike.
- Refit the two side panels
- Refit the seat
